REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Fairfield Central High School, a rural school with approximately 790 students in grades 9-12, is 86% African American, 13% Caucasian, and 1% Hispanic. The school is the only public high school in the county and is dedicated to meeting the needs of all students. The faculty is committed to providing each student with the opportunity of achieving academic success. The faculty shares in the belief that our school should be a place where students enter to learn and depart to serve.

The school is diverse in the preparation of students for a global society. Students are provided with the opportunities to pursue a course of study that leads to success in the workforce or higher education. Students are encouraged to prepare for post-secondary education or vocational careers through the school's partnership with Fairfield County Career and Technology Center. Fairfield Central High School has demonstrated steady academic growth and continues to show increases in reading, writing and math scores on the High School Assessment Program (HSAP). Fairfield Central High School was presented with the Palmetto Silver Award for closing the achievement gap; an honor bestowed upon the school for the past two years.

Fairfield Central High School continues to apply S.M.A.R.T. goals as a method of increasing student achievement. These goals include increasing the percentage of students meeting or exceeding standards in reading, writing and math on HSAP, increasing the percentage of students passing End Of Course (EOC) exams, and increasing the percentage of students meeting proficiency on district nine weeks assessments.

Although Fairfield Central High School considers academic achievement to be the area of the utmost importance, students are also encouraged to excel in extracurricular activities. We are extremely pleased that the graduating class of 2013 was awarded over $ 2million dollars in scholarships, and are equally happy about the successful season experienced by the varsity football team and the girls' varsity basketball team. Additionally, we are pleased about the many outstanding performances and accomplishments of our visual and performing arts students. Fairfield Central High School continues to strive for excellence in academics, athletics, and the arts.
